The book is a delightful light hearted tale about boating. It is the memoirs of a lifelong boater, written from the perspective of a person who has not made a living on the water but is just there because he enjoys being on the water. The book has stories about his pets on board and about the people he meets traveling the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway (ICW) to the Gulf Intracoastal Waterways (GIWW). He traveled extensively for ten years in a Grand Banks trawler. This journey has been just part of his lifelong boating adventures seeking that elusive boating paradise.
