Located just an hour away from Austin, Marble Falls offers a serene escape from the city's fast-paced lifestyle. Relax by the picturesque lake, go hiking or fishing, and indulge in delicious local cuisine. Don't miss out on exploring the captivating Hamilton Pool Preserve, a unique natural swimming hole formed by a collapsed underground river.

2. Fredericksburg

Head west to discover the enchanting town of Fredericksburg, known for its German heritage and Texan charm. Explore the charming wineries and vineyards, sample authentic German cuisine, and browse the unique boutiques along Main Street. Don't forget to visit the award-winning National Museum of the Pacific War and immerse yourself in the fascinating history of this region.

3. San Marcos

If you're a nature lover, San Marcos is the place for you! This vibrant city boasts the crystal-clear waters of the San Marcos River, where you can go kayaking, paddleboarding, or simply relax in a tube. The nearby San Marcos Premium Outlets beckon shoppers with their impressive selection of designer brands at discounted prices.

4. Hamilton

Nestled in the heart of Texas Hill Country, Hamilton captivates visitors with its small-town charm and rich history. Explore the stunning Hamilton County Courthouse, which dates back to 1887, and discover the hidden gems in downtown Hamilton's boutique shops. Don't miss out on exploring the breathtaking landscape at the Hamilton County Park, perfect for picnics and outdoor activities.

5. Waco

If you've ever watched the popular HGTV show "Fixer Upper," you'll want to visit Waco. The city has become a tourist destination, attracting people from all over the country to visit Chip and Joanna Gaines' Magnolia Market at the Silos. Enjoy a day of shopping, dining, and experiencing the unique atmosphere created by the couple's design and renovation talents.

6. Lockhart

No trip in Texas is complete without indulging in some mouthwatering barbecue. Lockhart, known as the "Barbecue Capital of Texas," is home to legendary barbecue joints such as Kreuz Market and Black's Barbecue. Take your taste buds on a savory excursion and savor the robust flavors of slow-smoked meats that have put Lockhart on the culinary map.
