It's the middle of winter, and Susannah feels like she's just going through the motions, keeping her ponies in work as she prepares for the competition season ahead. When she discovers a starved horse at a local animal rescue, she seizes the opportunity to help someone in need.

As her family life continues to spiral out of control, Susannah pours her heart and soul into saving the unwanted horse, convinced that she deserves a chance at a better life. But her father is determined to buy her the best show jumper in the country, and won't spare a thought for an unproven rescue.

Can Susannah find a way to convince her parents to let her take a chance on a horse that no-one else wants?

PONY JUMPERS:

Follow the adventures of AJ, Katy, Susannah and Tess as they train and compete their ponies on the national show jumping circuit. Whether they have an unschooled pony and tack held together with duct tape, or a string of top-quality show jumpers, these girls all have one thing in common - a love for the sport, and a lot of love for their ponies.

Each book in the Pony Jumper series is told from the perspective of the four main characters and ties into the books that have gone before. Set in New Zealand, the series incorporates information about training and riding competition ponies that will give help and guidance to readers, as well as each telling a compelling story! This is the third book in the series to be told from Susannah's point of view (previous titles - #3 Triple Bar and #7 Seventh Place).
