Then he is beset by a series of unusual falls on horses that should have won, and rumours start to circulate which imply that he has lost his nerve. He brushes off these incidents until a journalist, Topper McGrew, writes a series of inflammatory articles about him. Confused and angry, he turns to his best friend, ex-jockey Finn McCarthy and dietician, Harriet Lucas, to find out who is behind this whispering campaign against him.

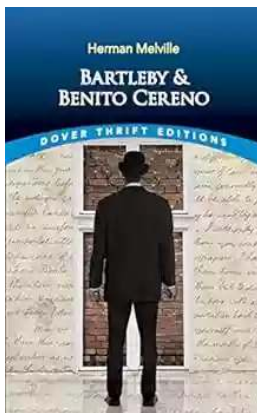

However, Finn McCarthy, now a jockey coach, has troubles of his own.
