"Only constant observation of civilian Judges and soldier witnesses could have shown me how fallible is the unaided military memory or have led me by three steps to a War Diary-

- (1) There is nothing certain about war except that one side won't win.
- (2) The winner is asked no questions-the loser has to answer for everything.
- (3) Soldiers think of nothing so little as failure and yet, to the extent of fixing intentions, orders, facts, dates firmly in their own minds, they ought to be prepared.

:-In war, keep your own counsel, preferably in a note-book."

This book is part of the World War One Centenary series; creating, collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry, fiction, autobiography and analysis.
