Each floor of the Hotel Zion holds its own unique wonders and secrets. The first floor, known as the Dreamer's Suite, is a portal into the realm of limitless imagination. Here, guests are encouraged to explore their dreams and desires through various art installations and interactive exhibits. Walking through this floor feels like wandering through the dreams of artists, with each room presenting a new world waiting to be discovered.

As you ascend to the second floor, you enter the Enigma Lounge. This floor is dedicated to unraveling mysteries and exploring the unknown. The walls are covered with ancient manuscripts, and the shelves house a collection of books that hold forgotten knowledge and untold secrets. Within this floor lies a hidden library that is said to possess the wisdom of ages, providing answers to questions that have long puzzled humanity.

The third floor, known as the Twilight Zone, is where reality and fantasy merge, blurring the line between the two. The rooms are filled with optical illusions, peculiar mirrors, and mind-bending art installations. It is on this floor that you begin to question your own perception and understanding of the world, as the boundaries of what is real and what is not become distorted.

As you reach the topmost floor, you find yourself in the Sanctum of Time. This floor is dedicated to the concept of time and its transformative power. Decorated with ancient clocks and celestial maps, the Sanctum serves as a reminder of the ephemeral nature of existence. Here, guests are encouraged to reflect on their own journey through time, contemplating the past, present, and future.

Throughout your stay at the Hotel Zion, you will encounter a variety of characters, each with their own story to tell. From the eccentric concierge who seems to possess an uncanny knowledge of the hotel's secrets to the enigmatic guests who appear to have emerged from another dimension, the people you meet here become integral to your own journey into the unknown.

The Hotel Zion is more than just a place to rest your head; it is an immersive experience that challenges your perception of reality. It is a place where dreams and reality intertwine, where the boundaries of time and space blur, and where hidden truths wait to be discovered.

So, if you are ready to embark on a surreal journey into the unknown, step inside the Hotel Zion and leave the confines of the ordinary behind. Discover the secrets that lie within its walls, and let your imagination take flight. Welcome to a world where reality becomes a dream, and dreams become your reality.

Come find a dark, dying world with bone and shattered glass hiding in the dust. It's a world where blood sprays free and dries in flaking scales. Bad things happen herein, and no one is safe.

Far in the future, humanity dwindles and has become desperate. They believe that God has abandoned them, hates them, rejoices in their death rattles. Bad things happen herein.

Sixteen-year-old Jonah lives in an inescapable hotel, but a boy somehow disappears from it. Jonah can't remember him. That's incredible, considering there are only thirty-two people in the Hotel Zion. Learning the boy's name leads to an obsession, a murder, and to Jonah's escape into a dying future where humanity is the minority.

Stranger still, Reality is loose. Something from beyond is communing with Jonah. He feels himself changing. Others are noticing.

Odd non-humans and a group called the Compliance Men want him and the people in the hotel. To find the boy and free his friends, Jonah must learn terrible secrets, make terrible choices and stay alive while doing it.
