Wacky Mayla Strong has finally given her life to God. But does He really want a purple-haired girl with piercings?

When purple-haired Mayla Strong slumps into the back pew of her mother’s church she has only one goal—to get Mama off her back. But Pastor Paul’s message pierces her soul, she’s strutting down the aisle in front of the bug-eyed congregation, lip stud and all.

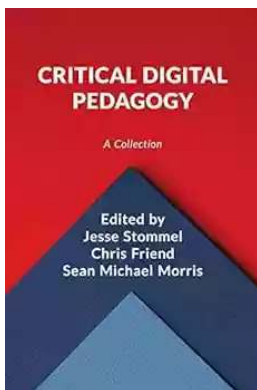

Baptized on the spot, Mayla comes out of the water knowing one thing for certain: life will never be the same.

“Smith writes with wit and honesty in this chick lit parable for walking in faith in a lost and dying world.” – RT Book Reviews (4-stars)
