The dude ranch world of Struthers Burt was a romantic destination in the early twentieth century. They transported people back to the Wild West. These ranches were and still are popular destinations.

The historic Bar BC Ranch is located on the Snake River in Grand Teton National Park. It was one of the largest operating dude ranches near Jackson Hole. This history of the experience written by Struthers Burt is compelling and entertaining.

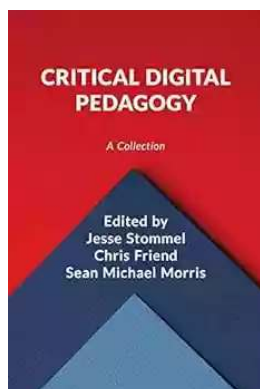

Writers flocked to the Bar BC to indulge and inspire their creativity. Jackson Hole's isolation made this location exciting and intriguing. The mountain beauty of the Bar BC is unmatched anywhere in America.
