Is Your Heart Calling to You?

At 17, Wyoming cowgirl Jess Camilla O'Neal had everything going for her: a homecoming queen crown, a promising career in musical theatre, a recording contract, and a scholarship to the school of her choice. All that changed in a moment when a freak accident shattered her legs and came close to shattering her spirit. This captivating book tells the story of Jess's wild ride toward recovery, repeated run-ins with tragedy, and triumphant emergence as a fun and feisty horsewoman, singer-songwriter, theatrical director, and force to be reckoned with.

In this gripping, even funny tale, Jess creates space for you to find:

- Strength from adversity
- Laughter beneath pain
- Healing and comfort in nature

- Insecurities as empowerment
- Resilience in trauma

A combination of Cheryl Strayed's deep-soul adventure, Wild, and the spiritual sensuousness of Elizabeth Gilbert's Eat, Pray, Love, O'Neal's She Rides Wild Horses invites you to look at life with vigor, laughter, and awareness of the joy that can be found even in imperfection.
