Praise for SCOUT'S GUIDE TO MOTOGP 2016:

"I am always a bit cynical about things like this, as they tend to be written with an 'angle' depending on who writes them. I intended to give the guide a quick look over, but ended up reading it from cover to cover. The analysis, backed up with the comments from people in the paddock, make it incredibly engaging. I really enjoyed it and I'm a jaded PR person!" -- Ian Wheeler, Marketing & Communications Manager at Team Estrella Galicia 0,0 Marc VDS

"This digital book is awesome! Be the most knowledgeable MotoGP fan on your block!" -- Greg White, motorcycle racing television personality

"We've never had anything like this for MotoGP. It is an amazing read." -- Larry Lawrence, Cycle News Contributing Editor and one of the leading motorcycle racing historians in America

"You won't find a better guide to the 2016 MotoGP field than Chris Martin's Scout's Guide. Absolutely outstanding." -- Louis Suddaby, BikeLive presenter for Downforce Radio, MotoGP reporter for TheCheckeredFlag.co.uk

"Here's an interesting project. A Scout's Guide to MotoGP by Chris Martin. Very good and interesting read." -- David Emmett, MotoMatters.com

Praise for SCOUT'S GUIDE TO SUPERCROSS 2016:

"Consider this some of the best bench racing ammo you'll ever find." – Jason Weigandt, Racer X

"It's not often that I read something in motorcycle racing that I can say is truly unique. That is undoubtedly the case with this new SCOUT'S GUIDE TO SUPERCROSS 2016. Author Chris Martin has broken new ground by bringing this type of in-depth rider analysis to supercross racing." – Larry Lawrence, Cycle News Contributing Editor and one of the leading motorcycle racing historians in America

"A really good job by Chris Martin. The book is informative and timely. Every supercross fan should have one at their fingertips." – Paul Carruthers,

MotoAmerica Communications Manager and formerly the Editor-in-Chief at Cycle News for more than 20 years
